

hug, embrace

– he hugged the child

(99-2160)

boil

– I boiled the haddock

(99-2242)

hug, embrace

– they hug their grandmother

(99-2259)

swallow, devour, gulp down

– the wolf devoured little red riding hood

(99-2278)

hurt

– she hurt her foot

(99-2329)

lie

– do you think that she has lied to the court?

(99-2363)

lunch bag

– I am taking along a bagged lunch

(99)

post office

– could you take the letter to the post office?

(99)

spoon

– we need spoons on the table for the soup

(99)

turnip

– the Icelandic turnips taste good

(99)

moss

– it is forbidden to gather moss in Iceland

(99)

Christianity

– Christianity was officially adopted in Iceland in 1000 A.D.

(99)

comb

– my comb is yellow

(99)

theatre

– I often go to the theatre

(99)

republic

– Iceland is a republic

(99)

democracy

– democracy must be supported

(99)