

Accessibility Declaration

This accessibility declaration applies to the website published under <https://master-open-design.org/> and was prepared on 02.11.2020.

The program coordination of the Master Open Design program at Humboldt-University of Berlin strives to make its website as accessible as possible in accordance with the requirement of the law on accessible information and communication technology in Berlin (BIKTG Bln) and the Accessible Information Technology Regulation (BITV 2.0) for the implementation of the Directive (EU) 2016/2102.

Current status of accessibility

The content of this website is only partially barrier-free. Graphic and multimedia contents have not yet all been supplemented with suitable text alternatives, descriptions, subtitles or audio descriptions. However, information on the website and the operation of user interface is understandable without most of the images. Forms and documents in the download area have not yet been adapted to an accessible format.

Report barriers! Feedback on accessibility

Would you like to inform us about existing barriers or ask for information on the implementation of accessibility? Then you are welcome to contact us.
