

Michael McGillen, M.A.

PhD candidate at Princeton University, working on a dissertation on Eschatological Thought in the Intellectual History of the Weimar Republic;
a recipient of DAAD scholarships for research in Germany in 2005-2006 and 2009-2010, his research interests include German Philosophy, from Idealism to Phenomenology, 20th century German Theology, German Philology and Pan-Hellenism, German Theater from the Baroque to present, modern German Poetry and Poetics, Post-war German Literature

Kontakt: mcgillen [at] princeton.edu